

CONVENTIONAL SURVEYING THEORY & TECHNIQUES

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course covers the concepts behind today's total stations with focus on automation. This is the key to productivity in our data acquisition and staking activities. Practical field exercises will provide data for analysis, quality assurance, and reporting and output of the final survey product. At each step there is an emphasis on the complete surveying workflow from field to office and back to field.

TOTAL HOURS

24

MAX PARTICIPANTS

16

COST PER STUDENT

$1,750

LOCATION

Traverse City, MI

nmc.edu/marine-center
marinecenter@nmc.edu
231.995.2500

